The First Lesson

Isaiah 52:13–53:12

See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate. Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide

Oremos.

Mira con bondad, te suplicamos, Dios omnipotente, a esta tu familia, por la cual nuestro Señor Jesucristo aceptó ser traicionado y entregado a hombres crueles, y sufrir muerte en la cruz; quien vive ahora y reina contigo y el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

Amén.

Primera Lectura

Isaías 52:13–53:12

Mi siervo tendrá éxito, será levantado y puesto muy alto. Así como muchos se asombraron de él, al ver su semblante, tan desfigurado que había perdido toda apariencia humana, así también muchas naciones se quedarán admiradas; los reyes, al verlo, no podrán decir palabra, porque verán y entenderán algo que nunca habían oído. ¿Quién va a creer lo que hemos oído? ¿A quién ha revelado el Señor su poder? El Señor quiso que su siervo creciera como planta tierna que hunde sus raíces en la tierra seca. No tenía belleza ni esplendor, su aspecto no tenía nada atractiva; los hombres lo despreciaban y lo rechazaban. Era un hombre lleno de dolor, acostumbrado al sufrimiento. Como a alguien que no merece ser visto, lo despreciamos, no lo tuvimos en cuenta. Y sin embargo él estaba cargado con their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

nuestros sufrimientos, estaba soportando nuestros propios dolores. Nosotros pensamos que Dios lo había herido, que lo había castigado y humillado. Pero fue traspasado a causa de nuestra rebeldía, fue atormentado a causa de nuestras maldades; el castigo que sufrió nos trajo la paz, por sus heridas alcanzamos la salud. Todos nosotros nos perdimos como ovejas, siguiendo cada uno su propio camino, pero el Señor cargó sobre él la maldad de todos nosotros. Fue maltratado, pero se sometió humildemente, y ni siquiera abrió la boca; lo llevaron como cordero al matadero, y él se quedó callado, sin abrir la boca, como una oveja cuando la trasquilan. Se lo llevaron injustamente, y no hubo quien lo defendiera; nadie se preocupó de su destino. Lo arrancaron de esta tierra, le dieron muerte por los pecados de mi pueblo. Lo enterraron al lado de hombres malvados, lo sepultaron con gente perversa, aunque nunca cometió ningún crimen ni hubo engaño en su boca. El Señor quiso oprimirlo con el sufrimiento. Y puesto que él se entregó en sacrificio por el pecado, tendrá larga vida y llegará a ver a sus descendientes; por medio de él tendrán éxito los planes del Señor. Después de tanta aflicción verá la luz, y quedará satisfecho al saberlo;

el justo siervo del Señor liberará a muchos, pues cargará con la maldad de ellos. Por eso Dios le dará un lugar entre los grandes, y con los poderosos participará del triunfo, porque se entregó a la muerte y fue contado entre los malvados, cuando en realidad cargó con los pecados de muchos e intercedió por los pecadores.

The Gradual Psalm 22 (choir) Deus, Deus meus
Chant: James Turle (1802–1882), from Henry Purcell (1659–1695)

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
by night as well, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Holy One, * enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, * scorned by all and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying, “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.
- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.
- 12 Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- 13 They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water;
all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.
- 16 Packs of dogs close me in,
and gangs of evildoers circle around me; *
they pierce my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.
- 17 They stare and gloat over me; *
they divide my garments among them;
they cast lots for my clothing.
- 18 Be not far away, O Lord; *
you are my strength; hasten to help me.
- 19 Save me from the sword, *

- my life from the power of the dog.
- 20 Save me from the lion's mouth, *
 my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.
- 21 I will declare your Name to my brethren; *
 in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.
- 22 Praise the Lord, you that fear him; *
 stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel;
 all you of Jacob's line, give glory.
- 23 For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
 neither does he hide his face from them; *
 but when they cry to him he hears them.
- 24 My praise is of him in the great assembly; *
 I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.
- 25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
 and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: *
 “May your heart live for ever!”
- 26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, *
 and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.
- 27 For kingship belongs to the Lord; *
 he rules over the nations.
- 28 To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
 all who go down to the dust fall before him.
- 29 My soul shall live for him;
 my descendants shall serve him; *
 they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.
- 30 They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn * the saving deeds that he has done.

Salmo 22 (coro) Deus, Deus meus

- 1 Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿Por qué me has desamparado? *
 ¿Por qué estás lejos de mi súplica, y de las palabras de mi clamor?
- 2 Dios mío, clamo de día, y no respondes; *
 de noche también, y no hay para mí reposo.
- 3 Pero tú eres el Santo, * entronizado sobre las alabanzas de Israel.
- 4 En ti esperaron nuestros antepasados; *
 esperaron, y tú los libraste.
- 5 Clamaron a tí, y fueron librados; *
 confiaron en tí, y no fueron avergonzados.
- 6 Mas yo soy gusano, y no hombre, * oprobio de todos y desprecio del pueblo.
- 7 Todos los que me ven, escarnecen de mí; * estiran los labios y menean la cabeza, diciendo:

- 8 "Acudió al Señor, librele él; * sálvele, si tanto lo quiere".
- 9 Pero tú eres el que me sacó del vientre, *
 y me tenías confiado en los pechos de mi madre.
- 10 A ti fui entregado antes de nacer, * desde el vientre de mi madre, tú eres mi Dios.
- 11 No te alejes de mí, porque la angustia está cerca, * porque no hay quien ayude.
- 12 Me rodean muchos novillos; *
 fuertes toros de Basán me circundan.
- 13 Abren sobre mí las bocas, * como león rapante y rugiente.
- 14 Soy derramado como aguas;
 todos mis huesos se descoyuntan; *
 mi corazón, como cera, se derrite en mis entrañas.
- 15 Como un tiesto está seca mi boca;
 mi lengua se pega al paladar; *
 y me has puesto en el polvo de la muerte;
- 16 Porque jaurías de perros me rodean, y pandillas de malignos me cercan; *
 horadan mis manos y mis pies;
 contar puedo todos mis huesos.
- 17 Me miran de hito en hito, y con satisfacción maligna; *
 reparten entre sí mis vestidos;
 sobre mi ropa echan suertes.
- 18 Mas tú, oh Señor, no te alejes; *
 fortaleza mía, apresúrate a socorrerme.
- 19 Salva de la espada mi garganta, *
 mi faz del filo del hacha.
- 20 Sálvame de la boca del león, *
 a este pobre, de los cuernos del búfalo.
- 21 Proclamaré tu Nombre a mis hermanos; *
 en medio de la congregación te alabaré.
- 22 Los que temen al Señor, alábenle; *
 glorifíquenle, oh vástagos de Jacob;
 tengan miedo de él, oh descendencia de Israel;
- 23 Porque no menospreció ni abominó la aflicción
 de los afligidos,
 ni de ellos escondió su rostro; *
 sino que cuando clamaron a él, los oyó.
- 24 De ti será mi alabanza en la gran congregación; *
 mis votos pagaré delante de los que le temen.
- 25 Comerán los pobres, y serán saciados, alabarán al Señor los que le buscan: *
 ¡Viva su corazón para siempre!
- 26 Se acordarán y se volverán al Señor todos los confines de la tierra, * y todas las familias de las naciones

- delante de ti se inclinan
- 27 Porque del Señor es el reino, * y él rige las naciones.
- 28 Sólo ante él se postrarán los que duermen en la tierra; *
delante de él doblarán la rodilla todos los que bajan al polvo.
- 29 Me hará vivir para él;
mi descendencia le servirá; *
será contada como suya para siempre.
- 30 Vendrán y anunciarán al pueblo aún no nacido * los hechos asombrosos que hizo.

The Second Lesson Hebrews 10:16-25

The Holy Spirit testifies saying,
 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord:
 I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,"
 he also adds,
 "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more."

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.
 Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

La Epístola Hebreos 10:16–25

El Espíritu Santo nos lo confirma, al decir:
 «La alianza que haré con ellos después de aquellos días, será ésta, dice el Señor: Pondré mis leyes en su corazón y las escribiré en su mente.
 Y no me acordaré más de sus pecados y maldades.»

Así pues, cuando los pecados han sido perdonados, ya no hay necesidad de más ofrendas por el pecado.

Hermanos, ahora podemos entrar con toda libertad en el santuario gracias a la sangre de Jesús, siguiendo el nuevo camino de vida que él nos abrió a través del velo, es decir, a través de su propio cuerpo. Tenemos un gran sacerdote al frente de la casa de Dios. Por eso, acerquémonos a Dios con corazón sincero y con una fe completamente segura, limpios nuestros corazones de mala conciencia y lavados nuestros cuerpos con agua pura.
 Mantengámonos firmes, sin dudar, en la esperanza de la fe que profesamos, porque Dios cumplirá la promesa que nos ha hecho.
 Busquemos la manera de ayudarnos unos a otros a tener más amor y a hacer el bien. No dejemos de asistir a nuestras reuniones, como hacen algunos, sino animémonos unos a otros;
 y tanto más cuanto que vemos que el día del Señor se acerca.

- 1 Save me, O God, *
for the waters have risen up to my neck.
- 2 I am sinking in deep mire, *
and there is no firm ground for my feet.
- 3 I have come into deep waters, *
and the torrent washes over me.
- 4 I have grown weary with my crying;
my throat is inflamed; *
my eyes have failed from looking for my God.
- 5 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head;
my lying foes who would destroy me are mighty. *
Must I then give back what I never stole?
- 6 O God, you know my foolishness, * and my faults are not hidden from you.
- 7 Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me, Lord God of hosts; *
let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me, O God of Israel.
- 8 Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, * and shame has covered my face.
- 9 I have become a stranger to my own kindred, *
an alien to my mother's children.
- 10 Zeal for your house has eaten me up; *
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me
- 14 But as for me, this is my prayer to you, * at the time you have set, O Lord:
- 15 "In your great mercy, O God, * answer me with your unfailing help.
- 16 Save me from the mire; do not let me sink; *
let me be rescued from those who hate me and out of the deep waters.
- 17 Let not the torrent of waters wash over me, neither let the deep swallow me up; *
do not let the Pit shut its mouth upon me.
- 18 Answer me, O Lord, for your love is kind; *
in your great compassion, turn to me.'
- 19 "Hide not your face from your servant; *
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.
- 20 Draw near to me and redeem me; *
because of my enemies deliver me.
- 21 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor; *

- my adversaries are all in your sight.”
- 22 Reproach has broken my heart, and it cannot be healed; *
 I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but I could find no one.
- 23 They gave me gall to eat, * and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

- 1 Sálvame, oh Dios, *
 porque me llegan las aguas al cuello.
- 2 Me estoy hundiendo en cieno profundo, * donde no puedo apoyar los pies.
- 3 He entrado en aguas profundas, *
 y el torrente me ha anegado.
- 4 Cansado estoy de gritar;
 mi garganta se ha enronquecido; *
 han desfallecido mis ojos de tanto aguardar a mi Dios.
- 5 Más que los cabellos de mi cabeza son los que me odian sin razón,
 más poderosas que yo son las mentiras de mis enemigos. *
 ¿He de pagar lo que no robé?
- 6 Oh Dios, tú conoces mi insensatez, *
 y mis delitos no te son ocultos.
- 7 No sean avergonzados por causa mía los que en ti confían, no sean deshonrados por mí los que te buscan,

- 9 Extranjero he llegado a ser para mis propios hermanos, * forastero para los hijos de mi madre.
- 10 Me consumió el celo de tu casa; *
 las ofensas de los que te insultaban cayeron sobre mí.
- 14 Pero yo oro a ti, oh Señor, *
 en el tiempo que has fijado:
- 15 "Oh Dios, por la abundancia de tu misericordia, * respóndeme con tu inagotable socorro.
- 16 Sálvame del cieno, que no me hunda, * líbrame de los que me odian y de las aguas profundas.
- 17 Que no me anegue el torrente, y no me trague el abismo; *
 que no se cierre el pozo sobre mí.
- 18 Respóndeme, oh Señor, porque benigna es tu misericordia; *
 por tu gran compasión, vuélvete hacia mí".
- 19 "No escondas de tu siervo tu rostro; *
 apresúrate, respóndeme, porque estoy angustiado.

- 20 Acércate y redímeme; *
a causa de mis enemigos, líbrame.
- 21 Tú sabes mi afrenta, mi vergüenza y mi oprobio; *
bajo tu mirada están todos mis adversarios".
- 22 La afrenta me destroza el corazón, y no puede ser sanado; *
busqué compasión, y no la encontré, consoladores, y ninguno hallé.
- 23 Me pusieron hiel por comida,*
y en mi sed me dieron a beber vinagre.

Gospeller The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted.

§ The congregation may be seated for the first part of the Passion.

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Judeans!" and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him." So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!" When the chief priests and the guards saw him, they shouted,

People (shouted) 'Crucify him! Crucify him!'

Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him." The Judean leaders answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God." Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no power

El Evangelio San Juan 19:1-37

La Pasión de nuestro Señor Jesucristo según San Juan.

Se omiten las respuestas habituales antes y después del Evangelio.

§ La congregación puede sentarse durante la primera parte de la Pasión.

Pilato, entonces, ordenó que azotaran a Jesús. Además, los soldados tejieron una corona de espinas y la pusieron en la cabeza de Jesús, y le vistieron con una capa de color rojo oscuro. Luego se acercaban a él, diciendo:—¡Viva el Rey de los judíos! Y le golpeaban en la cara. Pilato volvió a salir y les dijo: —Mirad, os lo he sacado para que sepáis que yo no encuentro en él ningún delito. Salió, pues, Jesús, con la corona de espinas en la cabeza y vestido con aquella capa de color rojo oscuro. Pilato dijo: —Ahí tenéis a este hombre! Cuando le vieron los jefes de los sacerdotes y los guardias del templo, comenzaron a gritar:

Pueblo (gritando)

¡Crucifícalo! ¡Crucifícalo!

Pilato les dijo: —Pues lleváoslo y crucificadle vosotros, porque yo no encuentro ningún delito en él. Los judíos le contestaron: —Nosotros tenemos una ley, y según nuestra ley debe morir porque se ha hecho pasar por Hijo de Dios. Al oír esto, Pilato tuvo más miedo todavía. Entró de nuevo en el palacio y preguntó a Jesús: —¿De dónde eres tú? Pero Jesús no le contestó nada. Pilato insistió: —¿Es que no me vas a contestar? ¿No sabes que tengo autoridad, tanto para ponerte en libertad como para crucificarte? Jesús le contestó: — over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.” From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Judean leaders cried out, “If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.” When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge’s bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Judean leaders, “Here is your King!” They cried out, People (shouted) ‘Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!’

Pilate asked them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but the emperor.” Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.

§ All stand as able

There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Judeans.” Many of the Judeans read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests of the Judeans said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Judeans,’ but, ‘This man said, I am King of the Judeans.’” Pilate answered, “What I have written I have written.” When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.” This was to fulfill what the scripture says, “They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.” And that is what the soldiers did.

Ninguna autoridad tendrías sobre mí, si Dios no te la hubiera dado. Por eso, el que me ha entregado a ti es más culpable de pecado que tú. Desde aquel momento, Pilato buscó la manera de poner en libertad a Jesús; pero los judíos le gritaban: –¡Si le pones en libertad, no eres amigo del césar! ¡Todo el que se hace rey es enemigo del césar! Al oír esto, Pilato ordenó que sacaran a Jesús, y luego se sentó en el tribunal, en el lugar que llamaban en hebreo Gabatá (es decir, El Empedrado). Era la víspera de la Pascua, hacia el mediodía. Pilato dijo a los judíos: –¡Aquí tenéis a vuestro Rey! Pero ellos gritaban:

Pueblo (gritando)

¡Muera! ¡Muera! ¡Crucificalo!

Pilato les preguntó: –¿Acaso he de crucificar a vuestro Rey? Y los jefes de los sacerdotes le contestaron: –¡No tenemos más rey que el césar! Entonces Pilato les entregó a Jesús para que lo crucificaran, y ellos se lo llevaron. Jesús, llevando su cruz, salió para ir al llamado “Lugar de la Calavera” (que en hebreo es Gólgota).

§ De pie, por favor

Allí lo crucificaron, y con él a otros dos, uno a cada lado. Pilato mandó poner sobre la cruz un letrero que decía: “Jesús de Nazaret, Rey de los judíos.” Muchos judíos leyeron aquel letrero, porque el lugar donde crucificaron a Jesús se hallaba cerca de la ciudad, y el letrero estaba escrito en hebreo, latín y griego. Por eso, los jefes de los sacerdotes judíos dijeron a Pilato: –No escribas: ‘El Rey de los judíos’, sino: ‘El que dice ser Rey de los judíos.’ Pero Pilato les contestó: –Lo que he escrito, escrito queda. Después de crucificar a Jesús, los soldados tomaron sus ropa y se las repartieron en cuatro partes, una para cada uno. Tomaron también su túnica, pero como no tenía costura, sino que estaba tejida de arriba abajo de una sola pieza, se dijeron entre ellos: –No la partamos. Echémosla a suertes, a ver a quién le toca. Así se cumplió la Escritura que dice: “Se repartieron entre sí mi ropa y echaron a suertes mi túnica.” Esto fue lo que hicieron los soldados. Junto a la cruz de Jesús

Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture), "I am thirsty." A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said, "It is finished." Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Silence

Since it was the day of Preparation, the Judean leaders did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, "None of his bones shall be broken." And again another passage of scripture says, "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

Sermon

estaban su madre y la hermana de su madre, María, esposa de Cleofás, y María Magdalena. Cuando Jesús vio a su madre y junto a ella al discípulo a quien él quería mucho, dijo a su madre: —Mujer, ahí tienes a tu hijo. Luego dijo al discípulo: —Ahí tienes a tu madre. Desde entonces, aquel discípulo la recibió en su casa. Después de esto, como Jesús sabía que ya todo se había cumplido, y para que se cumpliera la Escritura, dijo: —Tengo sed. Había allí una jarra llena de vino agrio. Empaparon una esponja en el vino, la ataron a una rama de hisopo y se la acercaron a la boca. Jesús bebió el vino agrio y dijo: —Todo está cumplido. Luego inclinó la cabeza y murió.

Era el día de la preparación de la Pascua. Los judíos no querían que los cuerpos quedasen en las cruces durante el sábado, pues precisamente aquel sábado era muy solemne. Por eso pidieron a Pilato que ordenara quebrar las piernas a los crucificados y quitar de allí los cuerpos. Fueron entonces los soldados y quebraron las piernas primero a uno y luego al otro de los crucificados junto a Jesús. Pero al acercarse a Jesús vieron que ya había muerto. Por eso no le quebraron las piernas. Sin embargo, uno de los soldados le atravesó el costado con una lanza, y al momento salió sangre y agua. El que cuenta esto es uno que lo vio y que dice la verdad. Él sabe que dice la verdad, para que vosotros también creáis. Porque estas cosas sucedieron para que se cumpliera la Escritura que dice: "No le quebrarán ningún hueso." Y en otra parte dice la Escritura: "Mirarán al que traspasaron."

Dance Meditation

Darius Mozafarian

Stabat Mater, Giovanni Battista Pergolesi (1710-1736)

the cross speaks in tears

I.

I was a tree
death broke me into pieces made me into an instrument of torture a mast to uphold terror to hold the dying aloft on my frame pointing to the stark punishment and to the austere powers of intolerance

they destined me
to hold In my embrace
the agony of harsh death but I can no longer bear this undue revenge
now my hard shell
is losing its grip
wanting to yield
to its softer inner core yearning to surrender
to the inevitable

I am buckling under the weight of this sorrow softening to become the salve the solace for the oozing pathos I am becoming the teardrops of suffering dripping from the maternal eyes rolling down the cheeks of despair to fall upon the soil of resurrection to prepare the ground for a resurgence
to awaken the Earth
for the Holy Emergence and to pave the way for Life to be born again

11.

I am the Cross, a Crossing and a Crossroad where opposing forces can Collide and discordant fields can crash, yet like a coin I have another side like a double-edged sword
I am a paradox
I can wield power to sever, yet
I can yield to bring things together opponents can meet and merge through my invitation for acceptance,
and through my invention
of forgiveness,
and in my duet with Eternity
I can lift up the fallen steady the limping and become the balm for the ailing and consolation
for wounds wailing
and give courage
to the limpid vitality
of the failing,

dancing with the dark shades of ending and the ominous shadows of demise, i can become the seed of ascension and the ladder to climb to the very heart of Divinity

III.

my form has been designed as the rigid body of rootlessness and the sharp angles of Injustice, rejection and prosecution I have become the torn garment
of thorns and thistles
to pierce the flesh of Innocence but witnessing
the agony of this horror and the pathos of this suffering
I am bending , blurring my sharpness
my angles softening into the weeping currents of compassion
And the sweeping curvatures of communion

I want to sustain life before the impending death, wrap myself around
the body of chastity, dragging behind
its shuddering fears,
I drape the flesh of anguish before the ultimate blow in order to become the symbol of rebirth
the soul of renewal,
and the seal of Resurrection , eternally dancing
with the legend of purity and peace
to become the Queen of Compassion for the King of Heart

The Good Friday Offering, April 7

The history of the Good Friday Offering reaches back to 1922 when, in the aftermath of World War I, The Episcopal Church sought to create new relationships with and among the Christians of the Middle East. From these initial efforts which focused on a combination of relief work and the improvement of ecumenical and Anglican relations, the Good Friday Offering was created.

Through the years many Episcopalians have found the Good Friday Offering to be an effective way to express their support for the ministries of the three dioceses of the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Pastoral care, education and health care continue to be primary ministries through which the reconciling spirit of the Christian faith serves all in need. Participation in this ministry is welcome. The generous donations of Episcopalians help the Christian presence in the Land of the Holy One to be a vital and effective force for peace and understanding among all of God's children.

For 101 years, Episcopalians have generously shared their love, compassion, and financial gifts to support the ministry of the Anglican Communion Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East. These gifts have made an astounding difference in the lives of many people in the homeland of Jesus and beyond. Check out our history of the Good Friday Offering to learn more about this life-changing ministry.

"The Entombment" by Kirby Kendrick

Located on the northeast wall to the left of the chancel steps.

"The Entombment" is a contemporary painting done after Titian, the devout Renaissance artist. The intense emotions of those present at Jesus's entombment is portrayed. The grief of Mary, Jesus's mother, is wrenching as she is comforted by the horrified Mary Magdalene. The face of the apostle, John, who holds Jesus's right hand, is full of anguish. Joseph of Arimathea, a wealthy Jew who offered his own tomb for the burial, is the figure in the rich red robes and Nicodemus, a rabbi dressed in the black robes of the scholar, is the figure holding Jesus's feet.
